We suggest using Fedex or UPS to overnight your documents to us. This way you have a tracking number and your documents are less likely to be lost in shipping. We also need to receive the documents by 11am to ensure the 24hour turn around. We do not suggest using the post office to ship documents to us, using the post office to overnight the documents to us may cause an additional delay of one business day.

When we receive your documents we will begin the process of apostilling your documents. The average turn around time is 24hours.

Typical Example of How Long The Process Takes With Overnight Shipping.

If we receive your documents Tuesday Morning by 11am, then the apostille will be completed by Tuesday Afternoon or Wednesday Morning. (24 Hours)
We will then overnight the apostilled documents back to you.
You would receive your apostilled documents on Wednesday or Thursday delivered by UPS.

Almost every Apostille we process is completed in 24 hours from the time we receive it. We can never guarantee the 24 hour turn around time since the Secretary of State may experience unexpected problems or delays. The 24 hour turn around time is based on a business week Monday - Friday. State holidays may also create a delay in processing requests.
